

Nikki Z Bio

Diva Nikki Z has always marched to the beat of her own drum. Diva Z has always been known as a strong minded, opinionated, DJ, radio host and entertainment / news reporter. This however didn't happen overnight. At the age of 17 she joined the army and was stationed in Fort Bliss, TX which included a 6 month tour in Saudi Arabia. Shortly after, Nikki Z was introduced to college radio, which lead to her landing a position on Jamz 910, the only Hip Hop station in Connecticut at the time. She remained with Jamz until they eventually changed their format due to the growing use of FM signals.

Ever on the go she then ventured to NYC where she did field production work for BET's "Turn Style", audience coordination for Comedy Central's Tough Crowd with Colin Quinn and also appeared in the infamous Rick James episode on The Dave Chappelle Show. Nikki Z eventually was hired at Power 104 to work as a board operator for the infamous Wendy Williams Radio show. With hard work and determination she worked her way from board operator and late night broadcaster to doing mid days 10-2 pm Mon-Fri.

Ever looking for opportunity for growth, Nikki Z made the decision to branch out of the place in which she grew up and venture over to the land she loves, Jamaica. With her already strong links and network Diva Nikki Z was introduced to Zip 103fm a budding station on the island and also Hype T.V Jamaica's leading video television network. In less then 1 year Nikki Z went from being a virtual unknown on the beautiful island to being 1 of the top rated radio media personalities. Always working and trying new things, from there Nikki Z produced one of Jamaica's biggest Dancehall artist, Movado's hit songs "Don't Cry" which is featured on his debut album Gangsta For Life.
